

It is our pleasure to share with you information below regarding available dates for LIVE, in-person shows of internationally and US-based companies for summer, 2021; the 21/22 season; and the 22/23 season.

For these live tour dates, we are working from the perspective that many current barriers are going to be behind us (closed borders, quarantines, shutdowns). We recognize that everyone has different COVID safety protocols in the process of reopening. To that end, we look forward to the day when all of us can gather audiences once again. (You can find information about our immediately available pandemic programming here: <https://www.elsieman.org/pandemic/>)
