

Kyle Vegter Bio

Kyle Vegter is a composer, producer, sound designer, and Managing Artistic Director of Manual Cinema. As a composer he's been commissioned by such groups as TIGUE, The Chicago Symphony Orchestra's MusicNOW series, the Chicago Composer's Orchestra, the New York Times, and NPR's Invisibilia. His production credits span genres and include recent releases by Thin Hymns, Spektral Quartet, Tim Munro (of eighth blackbird), and Color Card. His past Composer/Sound Designer credits with Manual Cinema include Lula Del Ray, Ada/Ava, FJORDS, The End of TV and various other performance and video projects. He has been an artist in residence at High Concept Laboratories and co-founded Chicago's only contemporary classical music cassette label Parlour Tapes+.